

Dewfall are an Epic Black Metal band from the Italic Land formed in 2003. Their first discographic debut is called "Legacy Of Soul", self-produced in 2004. In 2009 the band released the first album "V.I.T.R.I.O.L.". With a new line-up showing Flavio Paterno as only original member and main songwriter, in 2013 Dewfall published the new EP "Painful Death Lake", a work made of dark and powerful black/death metal riffing with evocative epic influences. On June 2018 Dewfall joins the coven of the Finnish-German label Naturmacht Productions, dealing for a worldwide physical and digital distribution releasing the second full-length "Hermeticus" (October 2018), and the third record "Landhaskur" (November, 2024). Along the years, the band joined many underground venues as well as relevant tours and festivals as direct support for the international gotha of black/death metal scene.

Line-up
Vittorio Bilanzuolo - Vocals
Flavio Paterno – Guitars, chants, traditional instruments
Nico Lassandro – Guitars, traditional instruments
Saverio Fiore - Bass
Ambrogio Locardo – Drums and percussions

LANDHASKUR DETAILS

Landhaskur is an epic-pagan black metal opus with a folkloristic and medieval blend, narrating the forgotten myth of Winnili, and the atavic pagan cults and traditions they infused during their 200 years kingdom at the doors of the middle age within the Italic Land, where they ruled with the name of "Longobards", during an apparently darkest historical period. The story on Landhaskur is performed in English, with a tribute to the ancient Latin and Langobardic languages, with a medieval Italian insert.

Naturmacht Productions

Landhaskur (Naturmacht Productions, Nov. 2024) consists of seven tracks, recorded at Spring Reverb Studio in Bari by Alessandro Memmi and mixed in the UK by Chris Fielding (former sound engineer for Drudkh, Winterfylleth, Fen, Electric Wizard, Conan...). As with the previous full-length "Hermeticus", Dewfall mastered "Landhaskur" by Herbrand Larsen (ex-Enslaved), at Conclave & Earshot Studios in Bergen, Norway, recording and production studios for Enslaved, Gorgoroth, Taake, Helheim, Demonaz and Vulture Industries. The artwork is painted by the Serbian artist Khaos Diktator. Music and Lyrics written and composed by Flavio Paterno. Arrangements by Dewfall. Cello and violin played by Veronica Iannella and Giada Cancelli. All rights are reserved.

The song "Skalks" features Ivan Eder (former singer of NÄV, black metal - Czech Republic), playing the role of the shaman "Othar" in the official video, to whom he offers his voice with screaming and ritualistic throat-singing. The video was directed and edited by the artist Francesco Manfredi (Manfrofilms), filmed in Apulia between the Dauni Mountains and the ruins of the Tertiveri Tower. The scenes with "Othar" were shot in Bohemia by videographer and director Petr Miloš (TripleBackslash Studio, Czech Republic), with the support of Kateřina Kümmelová, make-up artist, Radmila Ederová, costume designer; Václav Slavík, best-boy. The concept and the storyboard of the movie are signed by Dewfall.

HERMETICUS DETAILS

"Hermeticus" (Naturmacht Productions, Oct. 2018) is composed of a powerful and evoking sound coming from oldschool european roots. The concept merges history, nature and literature in a symbolic portrait tributing the esoteric myth of the Emperor Frederick II, the medieval Suevian sovereign better known as "Stupor Mundi", who ruled for a long time in Italy and mysteriously marked Apulian culture. The work is a personal metaphor bearing the ancient hermetic heritage of the band's homeland, connected with traditional atavistic heathendom. The story is narrated through eight songs composing two main historical and spiritual chapters and is also performed with several Latin and medieval Italian Poetry inserts.

"Hermeticus" is featuring vocals from "V'gandr" from Helheim-Taake (Dark Essence Records) on track4 "Apud Portam Ferram" and "Davide Straccione" from "Shores of Null" (Candlelight/Spinefarm Records) on track1 "The Abomination Throne". The album has been mastered at Conclave & Earshot Studios (Bergen, Norway) by Herbrand Larsen (ex- Enslaved), recorded and mixed at Molotov Recording studio (Bari, Italy) by Andrea Lenoci. The artwork has been painted by the Serbian illustrator "Khaos Diktator" (Horna, Nordjevel) based on the band's concept.
Concept, music and lyrics by Flavio Paterno. Arranged by Dewfall. Produced by Dewfall, Andrea Lenoci and Herbrand Larsen. All rights are reserved.
